What's New At Good News Camp?

In case you haven't had a chance to stop by Good News Camp recently, we wanted you to see what God has provided through His people over the past year to improve camp.

1. This new shed and tarp provide the perfect spot for our youngest group of girls to keep their things, change for swimming, and have lesson and lunch time.
2. Heavy duty hula hoops are providing lots of entertainment during free play time.
3. A new computer has been a tremendous blessing during chapel and missions.
4. The life jackets now have a way to dry out each evening as they hang from their newly built holders.
5. This shed is just the right size for our "Apaches" - the youngest group of boys.

Our teens at Roxbury: Jacob Russell, Josiah Fidler, Spencer Smith, Cora Russell, and Lynelle Thrush

Our summer missionaries had a great time of training with other teens from all over the state from June 13-20. While there, they learned how to present the gospel to children, how to teach a Bible lesson, songs, mission's time, games, counseling, and much more. They are all now equipped for a summer of ministry throughout the area teaching at Good News Camp and 5-day Clubs.

Good News Camp Update

Camp started on June 15 with campers coming from Chambersburg and Mercersburg. That was just the first of 8 weeks at the Mark Victor Teeter Memorial Park. As we've done in previous years, we'll also have a week of camp at Orrstown, Dublin Mills, Needmore, and Path Valley. We're still short a few teachers for weeks later in the summer. If you've been thinking about volunteering, please get in touch with us. It's not too late.

The lessons on Esther have been very well received by the campers. They have also been a tremendous blessing to the teachers and staff and we are reminded of the sovereignty and faithfulness of God through the account of Esther.
