Good News Camp 2016

In case you haven't had a chance to stop by Good News Camp recently, we wanted you to see what God has provided through His people over the past year to improve camp.

1. This new shed provides enough room for three groups of girls to keep their things, change for swimming, and have a place for lesson and lunch time in rainy weather.
2. Our teachers have a "refueling station" each morning during staff meeting and prayer time.
3. The campers are in a race each week to see which team can get the most points.
4. Our theme this year is a wonderful reminder to everyone that our God is great.
5. This roomy place for the teachers to meet each morning used to be a storage area before we had the space to move things out.

Our summer missionaries had a great time of training with other teens from all over the state from June 18-24. While there, they learned how to present the gospel to children, how to teach a Bible lesson, songs, mission's time, games, counseling, and much more. They are all now equipped for a summer of ministry throughout the area teaching at Good News Camp, Vacation Bible Schools and 5-Day Clubs.

Our summer missionary team at training school: Caleb Russell, Josiah Fisler, Caleb Fisler, Jacob Russell, and Cora Russell.

Good News Camp Update

Camp started on June 13 with campers coming from various parts of Franklin County. That was just the first of 8 weeks at the Mark Victor Teeter Memorial Park. We'll also have a week of camp at Orrstown, Dublin Mills, and Path Valley. We're still short a few teachers for weeks later in the summer. If you've been thinking about volunteering, please get in touch with us. It's not too late.

The lessons on Nehemiah have been very well received by the campers and are also a tremendous blessing to the teachers and staff.

Each morning in chapel, the children learn songs and Bible verses that go with the main truth of the day. One of their favorite songs says,

You will never, never leave me, Lord.”
