

Good News - February 2016

Dan and Michelle

Several new Good News Clubs started over the past month. All of them had a great start and are excited to meet through Spring. There were also several clubs in danger of having to stop for the year, but God provided workers who are willing to be there each week to keep the clubs going a little longer. It's amazing what a difference one person can make.

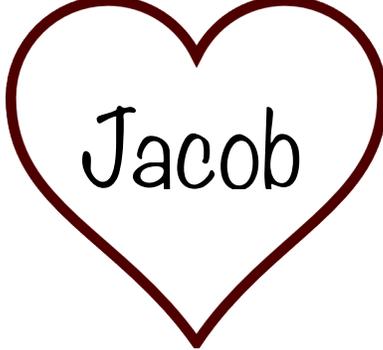

Cora is happy to be back in Oklahoma for the semester. She loved being overseas, but she loves her school family too. She has some pretty difficult classes this semester, but a five week Christmas break helped her rest, recharge, and be up for the challenge. So far, the weather down there has been more severe than here, but she had no problems getting back safely.

Caleb

Caleb enjoyed a nice break from his online classes. He's back in the swing of things now taking both high school and college classes. He and Jacob enjoy attending a high school Bible study each Wednesday night that is led by one of their friends.

Jacob is a Freshman this year so he had to take mid-terms for the first time. The teachers did a good job with helping them prepare, so they weren't too hard for him. He designed a website for History Day this year and it advanced to the next level. He'll compete at that level on February 27 at Messiah College.

Olivia

Olivia is playing on a league volleyball team this year for the first time. They practice once a week and will play in some Saturday tournaments. She isn't as interested in the competition as much as just getting to play all winter long. She's made some new friends and is really enjoying it.
