Child Evangelism Fellowship® of Franklin/Fulton Counties

Tel-A-Story® Update

We recently shared a new toll free phone number that is available for Tel-a-Story. In December, we distributed this number to the children in our Good News Clubs® and there were more than 700 calls made that month! Thanks for your part in spreading the word. The story is changed daily, so children can call often. Once again, the number is

1-888-878-8660

This number is managed by CEF® of Washington State and they are asking for our help. At the end of each story, a child may press 1 for more information about becoming a Christian. When they press 1, they are connected to a Trail Guide. Each Trail Guide commits to a one-hour time slot each week when they are available to answer the phone. Trail Guides are especially needed on the East Coast. If you'd like more information, call our office. Instructions and training are provided for all guides.

And They're Off...

Matias and Rebekah Mancilla will soon be flying to Puerto Rico to begin their new ministry as National Directors with Child Evangelism Fellowship. God used His people to supply their needed monthly support and He also paved the way for their arrival in their new home and place of ministry. As you probably know, Rebekah grew up in CEF and worked with the ministry of Franklin/Fulton Counties for several years. Matias also did a one-year local internship. We're so excited that they can take all of this preparation and use it as they begin ministry where God has called them.

If you'd like to keep up with their ministry, you can email them at matiasandrebekah@gmail.com to be added to their prayer letter list. You can also follow them on Facebook at "Matias and Rebekah go to Puerto Rico". You can write to them on the field at:

Training Offered

Spring is often a time when churches like to offer seminars for teachers and children's workers to sharpen their skills. We are able to come to your church and lead these seminars if you think you have workers who are interested.

Topics could include How to Lead a Child to Christ, Discipline, Creative Ideas for Review Games, How to Teach a Memory Verse, Missions Ideas, or we can try to meet a specific need you may have in your program.

CEF also offers online training for children's workers. Please contact our office if you'd like more information about this or any of our training opportunities.

You may not be thinking about summer yet, but here at the CEF office, we're already making plans for our summer activities. Below are some ways that we may be able to help you this summer and also some ways you may be able to help our ministry.

Christian Youth in Action, or CYIA, is our summer missions program for college students and teens 14 years of age and older. CYIA involves two weeks of training followed by 3-6 weeks of teaching in our local area. During the training, participants will learn how to be a part of a team that will teach 5-Day Clubs®. We are now in the process of recruiting young people for this coming summer. If you know someone who might be interested in learning more about this program, please contact our office and we'll provide more information.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Last summer, some of our most exciting 5-Day Clubs® were held at churches as part of their Vacation Bible School. We worked with the VBS leaders to provide teaching and counseling for the children during their week of VBS.

Our summer missionaries are extremely flexible and were able to help each church in the areas that they needed it most. We'd love to help your church this summer if that is a need you may have. Contact our office if you'd like more information.

MISSIONS

Do you know a missionary who will be stateside this summer? We are looking for missionaries to share their ministries with the children at Good News Camp in 2016. If you know of someone who might be interested, we'd love to have you give us their contact information.

Good News Camp 2016

Plans are underway for another exciting summer of Good News Camp. Next month, we'll have more details, but if you're interested in knowing the dates for this summer, the schedule can be found on our website - www.franklincef.com. Start planning now for the week you'd like to serve.
