

You Are Invited to Good News Club®

What is a Good News Club?

Good News Club is a fun hour of stories, songs, and games, sponsored by CEF, which teaches boys and girls lessons from the Bible. Children learn character, respect, and moral values.

Who can come?

Anyone in full-day Kindergarten, 1st Grade, or 2nd Grade can attend regardless of religious background.

When and Where is it held?

Good News Clubs are held weekly for every elementary school in Franklin and Fulton counties in locations off of school property. Day and times are set by school administration. Clubs may run in the fall and spring but do not meet on days with delays.

Who teaches the club?

Specially trained volunteers teach the clubs, and all club volunteers have been screened according to the PA Child Protective Services Law to ensure your child's safety. CEF School Buses have passed the State Police safety inspection and are operated by drivers with a School Bus CDL. For more information about being a volunteer please contact CEF.

How do I sign my child up for club?

To enroll in Good News Club, Pennsylvania law requires parental permission. Please complete the form below and return it to your school's office. Once enrolled, regular attendance by your child is expected unless you provide a written withdrawal note.
