We are so thankful for the twenty-six schools that have been open this year for us to have weekly clubs. God has given us good attendance and safety, and we've seen children make lifelong decisions for Christ.

Even though clubs will continue to run through most of April, we are at the time of year when we have to split our attention and start preparing for camp. This is always an exciting time. Much of the camp preparation that can be done ahead of time has already been completed, so we are just waiting for the weather to allow us to get on the property and prepare. We're expecting several work crews in the next few months to help us clean and set up for a new year of camp.

There is always much to be done, and these groups enjoy the projects. If you are able to come and help, let us know. There are usually jobs to be done both inside and outside.

We will have camp brochures and registration forms in the mail soon. We will also be emailing forms this year since online registration will once again be an option. Please pray that children will hear about camp and decide to come this summer.

Family News

Cora and Seth have made the decision to return to the states after four years in Thailand. They will come this summer. They are still not sure where they will be located, but feel that it is time to start a new chapter. They are excited to see where God will lead them next.

Caleb has been an absolute lifesaver over these past weeks. He is eager to help wherever needed and has been substituting at clubs several days a week. We're so thankful for his flexibility and willingness to jump right in. He is also volunteering one day a week at our church.

Jacob is just a few months from graduation, so he is on a job search. His degree will be in software engineering. He's willing to go pretty much anywhere, so there should be some good opportunities for him. He is enjoying his time in the dorm with his friends (pictured above after a banquet)

Olivia has accepted an internship in Lynchburg, VA this summer. It will be nice to have her closer. Her boyfriend, Matt, got a permanent job offer from the same company, so he will move to Lynchburg after his graduation. She celebrated her 20th birthday last month.

Just a reminder that our monthly newsletter and prayer calendar can be found online. Our website is www.franklincef.com. Camp brochures and registration information can be found there as well.
