

Good News

Good News Camp is Here!

We are thrilled to be able to say that camp has arrived. This is our family's 16th summer of Good News Camp. This year Dan, Michelle, and Caleb will be working at the camp all eight weeks. Cora, Jacob, and Olivia will be in and out at various times, but are not on staff. We've had many work days, many volunteers, many donations, and much prayer to prepare for a full summer of ministry.

We are so thankful for the many teachers, junior counselors, helpers, nurses, and bus drivers who have volunteered for the summer. Nearly all of the roles are filled except for the need for a few more teachers and counselors later in the summer. The junior staff are doing a fantastic job of teaching, running activities, and helping in numerous ways all around camp. They are truly a blessing to the campers and to the other staff.

We were able to do many camp updates and improvements during the four work days we had. A few more updates will still be done throughout the summer. We are grateful for many teams and individuals who consistently help with these projects to keep camp maintained and updated. The spring rains also helped to make the grass and water beautiful just in time for camp.

Cora and Seth

Welcome HOME

Cora and Seth have officially moved back to the USA. Cora came first to pack up their things from PA and send them ahead to Washington. She met Seth in Oklahoma to spend time with his family and they are making their way across the country to settle in. Pray as Cora is still looking for a job.

Caleb

Caleb is once again doing a great job leading chapel at camp each day. He is also still doing editing work during nights and weekends. He plans to work here all summer and then move to Maryland to live with Jacob after camp is over.

Jacob

adulting

[ad-tuhlt-ing] noun.

The practice of behaving in a way characteristic of a responsible adult, especially the accomplishment of mundane but necessary tasks.

Jacob was able to find an apartment in this tough rental market just two weeks before he needed to move in. We're so thankful for this provision. He is hoping to move the first week in July. His new job will start about a week later. He's been navigating all of this very well.

Olivia

Olivia was able to come home for a weekend to see Cora. She also played hostess to Cora and Michelle the next weekend. She was a great tour guide and we all had a lot of fun together in Lynchburg. She's settling in well to her internship and learning a lot.

PRAYER

Prayer Requests:

- ✓ Pray for Cora and Seth as they settle into a new home and a new town. Pray that Cora will find just the right job by Fall.
- ✓ Pray for Olivia as she continues to work in her internship. It is stretching her in many ways.
- ✓ Pray for those at camp to have good health and the stamina needed to do eight straight weeks of camp.
