

Good News

Happy New Year!

We're excited to begin another year of life and ministry. We're thankful that God has given us another year to serve Him. This year is going to look different from the previous fifteen years serving with Child Evangelism Fellowship, but we are ready for all that God has to reveal to us as the year progresses. Michelle just finished her thirteenth class in her PhD work (out of fifteen total). After these classes are completed, she will begin writing her dissertation. For those who might be interested, her dissertation will be on the effectiveness of Child Evangelism Fellowship in reaching children through School Good News Clubs. The research so far has been very exciting and inspiring. The writing, editing, and defending phase will take at least a year.

As we look back over 2022, we are so thankful to God for all that He has done for our family during this year. There have been a lot of changes, and it was exciting to see God working in our lives. A special thank you to all of you who prayed for us and supported us financially this year. We are so appreciative of you. We look forward to seeing how God will direct our family and our ministries this year.

Cora and Seth

Cora and Seth arrived home for the holidays on Dec. 21. They will be able to stay for about a week. They are enjoying their teaching jobs in Washington state, but the weather has been quite an adjustment for them. Their cat is finding it hard to stay warm, too!

Caleb

Caleb is really enjoying his job as administrative assistant for CEF of Maryland. He's met some wonderful people and he has been helpful to them. He and Jacob both have time off between Christmas and New Year's, so they'll be home for a visit.

Jacob

Jacob is gaining a lot of confidence in his new job. He's been there almost six months now, so the tasks are familiar, and he knows what to expect most days. He loves the flexibility of working from home sometimes.

Olivia

Back home Again

Olivia finished her semester well but was pretty exhausted. The day after classes ended, she flew to WA to spend a long weekend with Cora and Seth. She's home now, and happy to have some time to rest until the Spring semester.

Pray Continually
1 Thessalonians 5:17

- ✓ Praise God for a new year of ministry. Praise for the health and safety of our family. Pray that it will continue throughout the year.
- ✓ Pray for Olivia as she's looking for a research internship this summer. They will become available over the next few months.
