The Latest News from the Robinsons

We were able to get away to Rehoboth Beach for Mother's Day weekend with family. Both Matt and Tiffanie's moms came along as well as Tiffanie's sister's family. Our family loves visiting this beach a couple of times each year! The kids enjoyed it as usual and loved that their cousins and grandmothers came along.

Noah's favorite thing at the beach was doing some shopping at the outlets on a rainy afternoon. He's a preteen so he is getting into clothes and shoes. He also enjoyed getting ice cream every night on the boardwalk!

Maggie loves looking for seashells with her Dad. They found a couple of really cool ones! She experienced a crab cake for the first time and loved it! She also really enjoyed bumper cars at Funland and shopping at the outlets.

Titus enjoyed getting into the ocean and catching some waves. He also flew a kite for the first time on the beach thanks to his uncle! He was a champ keeping it under control. His favorite thing was riding the bumper cars at Funland.
